sophisticated and volatile markets. Investors must be willing to make an investment that is exposed to the full down-side risk of the Underlying.

Product Specific Risks

Loss potential	The investors may lose some or all of the investment as they are fully exposed to the performance of the Underlying.
Capital Protection (at Expiry)	No. Investors should be aware that the performance of the Product may be negative, and therefore the Redemption Amount as the case may be, can be less than the Issue Price.
Risk potential in comparison to a direct investment in the Underlying	The risk potential is similar to a direct investment in the Underlying.
Issuer call right	None
Stop Loss Event	None
Risks specific to commodity investments	Investments in commodities may have greater volatility than investments in traditional securities, particularly if the instruments involve leverage. The value of commodity-linked derivative instruments may be affected by changes in overall market movements, commodity index volatility, changes in interest rates, or factors affecting a particular industry or commodity, such as drought, floods, weather, livestock disease, embargoes, tariffs and international economic, political and regulatory developments. Use of leveraged commodity-linked derivatives creates an opportunity for increased return but, at the same time, creates the possibility for greater loss.
Price Source Disruption Event	It may become impossible to obtain the relevant price during the lifetime of the Product and/or on the Expiration Date due to one or more of the price sources normally used in the relevant market for the Underlying being unavailable because an unscheduled bank closure is declared on short notice in the relevant country or due to the occurrence of any other disruption (each a "Price Source Disruption Event"). The Calculation Agent will determine in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner whether a Price Source Disruption Event has occurred. A Price Source Disruption Event may lead to (i) a postponement of the Expiration Date and therefore the redemption payment, (ii) to the use of an alternative source for the relevant price and or (iii) to the unilateral determination of the applicable price by the Calculation Agent. Such postponement, use of alternative price source and/or determination of the applicable price by the Calculation Agent may affect, materially or otherwise, the Redemption Amount which the Investor will receive.
Extraordinary termination risk	The Product contains terms and conditions that allow the Issuer to terminate and redeem the Product prior to the Redemption Date. In case of such extraordinary termination, the Issuer shall pay to the Investors an extraordinary termination amount as determined by the Calculation Agent which is usually equivalent to the market value of the Product. Potential Investors should note that the extraordinary termination amount may deviate from and may be considerably below the amount which would be payable pursuant to the final redemption provisions on the Redemption Date. Investors are not entitled to request any further payments on the Product after the termination date.
Adjustment risk	Investors should be aware that it cannot be excluded that certain events occur or certain measures are taken (by parties other than the Issuer) in relation to the Underlying which can lead to changes to the Underlying or its concept (e.g. corporate events of a company whose shares constitute an Underlying, Market Disruption Events or other circumstances affecting normal activities). In the case of the occurrence of such events or measures, the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent are entitled to effect adjustments according to the Product Documentation. Such adjustments might have a negative impact on the value of the Product.

Notional investment	The Underlying is constructed from "notional" investments in the options on futures underlying the Strategy and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in respect of which any person has any direct or indirect ownership interest. Holders of the Products will not have any direct interest or beneficial ownership in the Underlying at any time.
Unpredictable Market Value of the Product	The market value of, and expected return on, the Products may be influenced by a number of factors, some or all of which may be unpredictable (and which may offset or magnify each other), such as (i) supply and demand for the Products, (ii) the value and volatility of the futures underlying the Strategy, (iii) the value of the options on futures underlying the Strategy, (iv) economic, financial, political and regulatory or judicial events that affect the Issuer, the futures underlying the Strategy or financial markets generally, (v) interest and yield rates in the market generally, (vi) the time remaining until the Redemption Date, (vii) the Issuer's creditworthiness. The market value of the Products may be adversely affected by postponement or alternative provisions for the valuation of the level of the Underlying.
Underlying performance risk	Potential Investors should note that any amount payable under the Products will depend on the performance of the Underlying. Potential Investors in the Products should be familiar with the behavior of the Underlying and thoroughly understand how the performance of the Underlying may affect payments under, or the market value of, the Products. If the price of the futures underlying the Strategy rise, the Underlying is unlikely to generate the same amount of positive returns. If the price of the futures underlying the Strategy falls materially, the Underlying is unlikely to be able to generate sufficient premiums to compensate for the losses incurred due to a fall of the futures underlying the Strategy. It should also be noted that the premiums earned by selling put options are dependent on market levels of implied volatility so if the level of implied volatility decreases then the returns generated by the Underlying may be lower than those generated historically. The value of the Underlying will be impacted as well by notional fees and costs included within the strategy methodology and may include certain deductions or adjustments that synthetically reflect certain factors which may include (A) the transaction and servicing costs that a hypothetical investor would incur if such hypothetical investor were to enter into and maintain a series of direct investment positions to provide the same exposure to the options on futures underlying the Strategy, or (B) a notional fee representing the running and maintenance costs of the options on futures underlying the Strategy. Such deductions will have a negative impact on the performance of the options on futures underlying the Strategy such that the level of such options on futures underlying the Strategy would be lower than it would otherwise be, and this may result in an adverse effect on the value of the Products (as described in the Annex).
Illiquidity risk in secondary market	The Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, intends, under normal market conditions, to provide bid and/or offer prices for this Product on a regular basis. However, the Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, makes no firm commitment to provide liquidity by means of bid and/or offer prices for this Product, and assumes no legal obligation to quote any such prices or with respect to the level or determination of such prices. Potential investors therefore should not rely on the ability to sell this Product at a specific time or at a specific price. Potential investors should note that prices quoted typically include a spread and therefore may deviate from the market value of the Product. In special market situations, where the Issuer is completely unable to enter into hedging transactions, or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices in the secondary market may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer. Hence, Investors might sell at a price considerably lower than the actual price of the Product at the time of its sale. By selling the Product in the secondary market Investors may receive less than the capital invested. In case of a secondary market transaction, there is a possibility that costs, including taxes, related to or in connection with the Product may arise for Investors that are not paid by the Issuer or imposed by the Issuer.
Calculation Agent's discretion	The Calculation Agent has a broad discretionary authority to make various determinations and adjustments under the Products, any of which may have an adverse effect on the value and/or the amounts payable under the Products. Prospective investors should be aware that any determinations made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Products. Where the Calculation Agent is required to make a determination it may do so without taking into account the interests of the holders of the Product.

Market Disruption risk Investors are exposed to market disruption events (such as Trading Disruption, Exchange Disruption and Early Closure of the relevant exchange), which could have an impact on the redemption amount through delay in payment, change in value or suspension of trading in the Product in the secondary market. For a detailed description of such events and their effects please refer to the Product Documentation.

Similar risks to a direct investment in futures contracts The Products aim inter alia to replicate the performance of short positions in options on futures. Consequently, an investment in the Products, to a certain extent, is subject to market risks similar to direct investment in such a futures contract. Futures prices can differ substantially from the spot price of the underlying financial instrument (e.g. shares, indices, interest rates, currencies) or underlying commodity and precious metal (e.g. oil, wheat, sugar, gold, silver). Investors must be aware of the fact that the futures price and, accordingly, the value of the Products does not always move in the same direction or at the same rate as the spot price of such underlying. Therefore, the value of the Products can fall substantially even if the spot price of the relevant underlying of the futures contract remains stable or rises.

Withholding tax Investors in this Product should note that any payment under this Product may be subject to withholding tax (such as, inter alia, Swiss Withholding Tax, and/or withholding related to FATCA or 871(m) of the US Tax Code). Any payments due under this Product are net of such tax. Please refer to the General Terms and Conditions for detailed information. If the Issuer is required to withhold any amount pursuant to Section 871(m) or FATCA of the U.S. Tax Code, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amount so withheld.

Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

In addition to the market risk with regard to the development of the Underlying, each Investor bears the general risk that the financial situation of the Issuer could deteriorate. The Products constitute immediate, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, which, particularly in case of insolvency of the Issuer, rank pari passu with each and all other current and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, with the exception of those that have priority due to mandatory statutory provisions. The general assessment of the Issuer's creditworthiness may affect the value of the Products. This assessment generally depends on the ratings assigned to the Issuer or its affiliated companies by rating agencies such as Moody's, Fitch and Standard & Poor's.

The Issuer Ratings indicated in this document reflect the situation at the time of issuance and may be subject to changes. The actual Issuer Ratings at any given time can be seen on the Issuer's website (www.ubs.com) under "Analysts & Investors".

- II. the value of the Cash Position as determined in accordance with Section 3.2

On each Option Portfolio Business Day, the Option Portfolio Level (OP_t) will be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$OP_t = Cash_t + \sum_{i \in L'_t} OptionUnit_i \times (OptionVal_{i,t})$$

The Cash Position represents exposure to a notional cash account. The level of the Cash Position (the "Cash Position Level") in respect of each Option Portfolio Business Day t " $Cash_t$ " will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula.

$$Cash_t^{ExpiringOptions} = \sum_{i \in E_t} [OptionUnit_i \times OptionExpirationValue_i]$$

$$Cash_t^{NewOptions} = - \sum_{i \in N_t} [OptionUnit_i \times OptionVal_{i,t}] - \sum_{i \in N_t} abs[OptionUnit_i \times OptionSpread_{i,t}]$$

Where:

" $Cash_t$ " means the value of the Cash Position on Option Portfolio Business Day t;

Section 4. Strategy Composition and Strategy Model

On each Rebalance Day, new exchange-listed option(s) are initiated corresponding to each Option Contract as outlined Table 2.

The method to select the options (each a "Selected Option" and together the "Selected Options") along with their respective Option Weights, Option Units and Option Spreads is detailed in this Section 4 (Strategy Composition and Strategy Model).

4.1 Option Expiration

On each Rebalance Day and for each Option Contract, the Option Portfolio Business Day that lies on or immediately preceding the calendar day that is after Rebalance Day t by exactly the Target Expiration is defined as the "Target Expiration Date".

If such Target Expiration Date coincides with a Listed Expiration Date then only one option is selected for each Option Contract, with such option having an expiration date equal to the Target Expiration Date.

Otherwise, two options are selected for each Option Contract with expiration dates corresponding to the two closest Listed Expiration Dates to the Target Expiration Date enclosing the Target Expiration Date. The nearer option expiration date being the "Near Expiration Date" and the farther being the "Far Expiration Date".

4.2 Option Strike Level

On each Rebalance Day and for each Option Contract with an expiration date determined in accordance with Section 4.1, the "Option Strike" is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Option Strike}_i = \text{Nearest}(\text{Target Strike}_i \times F_{i,t-1}, \text{Listed Strike Interval}_i)$$

Where:

"Listed Strike Interval_i" means the "Listed Strike Interval" as detailed for each option i corresponding to an Option Contract in Table 2;

"Nearest(a, b)" means the nearest available strike to 'a' that is a multiple of 'b' in the Option Chain of the respective Option Contract as of the Option Portfolio Business Day immediately preceding the current Rebalance Day t . In the event where there are two available strikes (which are multiples of 'b') that are equidistant (in terms of absolute strike) to 'a', the lower strike is selected; and

"Option Strike_i" means the strike level with regard to option i ;

"Target Strike_i" means the "Target Strike" as detailed for each option i corresponding to an Option Contract in Table 2; and

"F_{i,t-1}" means the value of the Exchange Settlement Price of the Reference Future on the Option Portfolio Business Day immediately preceding Option Portfolio Business Day t of corresponding option i ;

4.3 Option Weights

On each Rebalance Day and for each Option Contract, the Option Weight for each of the relevant Portfolio Constituent(s) " i " is equal to:

- a) If only one option is chosen with an expiration date being the same as the Target Expiration Date then the Option Weight for the relevant option is equal to:
 - a. 0% if on Option Portfolio Business Day " t " the relevant Option Valuation adjusted by the Option Spread is less than or equal to 0;

- b. 0% if such Rebalancing Day is a Disrupted Day as determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner;
- c. If (a) and (b) are not applicable, then 100%;
- b) Otherwise if two options are chosen for each Option Contract with expiration dates enclosing the desired Target Expiration date, then:
- a. 0% if such Rebalancing Day is a Disrupted Day as determined by the Calculation Agent in a commercially reasonable manner;
- b. If (a) is not applicable, then;
- If the Near Expiration Date is less than 7 calendar days after Option Portfolio Business Day t then:

$$Option\ Weight_i^{Near\ Expiration} = 0\%$$

$$Option\ Weight_i^{Far\ Expiration} = \frac{TDD(t, Target\ Expiration\ Date)}{TDD(t, Far\ Expiration\ Date)}$$

If the Near Expiration Date is more than or equal to 7 calendar days after the Option Portfolio Business Day t then:

$$Option\ Weight_i^{Near\ Expiration} = \frac{TDD(Target\ Expiration\ Date, Far\ Expiration\ Date)}{TDD(Near\ Expiration\ Date, Far\ Expiration\ Date)}$$

$$Option\ Weight_i^{Far\ Expiration} = \frac{TDD(Near\ Expiration\ Date, Target\ Expiration\ Date)}{TDD(Near\ Expiration\ Date, Far\ Expiration\ Date)}$$

- c. On Option Portfolio Business Day "t" for any chosen option as per (b) above, if the relevant Option Valuation adjusted by the Option Spread is less than or equal to 0 then the Option Weight for that options is overwritten to 0%.

Where:

"TDD(a, b)" means the number of Scheduled Trading Days from (and including) date 'a' to (and excluding) date 'b'.

4.4 Option Units

On each Rebalance Day, for each New Option, the "Option Units" are calculated as follows:

$$OptionUnits_i = Allocation_i \times \frac{OP_{t-1} \times OptionWeight_i}{F_{i,t-1}}$$

On each Option Portfolio Business Day and for each Selected Option the “Implied Volatility, $\sigma_{i,t}$ ” is calculated by using an optimization function which minimizes the difference between the Option Reference Price of an out-of-the-money option (the “Reference Option”) to the price derived using the Black-Scholes option pricing formula, calculated as follows:

If $F_{i,t} \leq \text{OptionStrike}_i$, the Reference Option used for optimization is a Call option with the same strike and expiration as option i.

If $F_{i,t} > \text{OptionStrike}_i$, the Reference Option used for optimization is a Put option with the same strike and expiration as option i.

The Implied Volatility for the option i is then determined by solving the below optimization problem using the Optimization Algorithm as described below, with the result rounded to the fourth decimal, and then rounded to the third decimal:

Minimize the below objective function:

$$|BS_{RefOpt,t} - OptRefPrice_{RefOpt,t}|$$

Subject to following constraints:

1. Relative/Absolute accuracy: 1e-11
2. $0.1\% \leq \sigma \leq 200\%$
3. Maximum number of iterations: 100

Where:

If the Reference Option is a Call option:

$$BS_{RefOpt,t} = F_{i,t} \times N(d1_{i,t}) - K_i \times N(d2_{i,t})$$

If the Reference Option is a Put option:

$$BS_{RefOpt,t} = K_i \times N(-d2_{i,t}) - F_{i,t} \times N(-d1_{i,t})$$

$$d1_{i,t} = \frac{1}{\sigma \times \sqrt{\tau_{i,t}}} \left[\ln\left(\frac{F_{i,t}}{K_i}\right) + \frac{1}{2} \times \sigma^2 \times \tau_{i,t} \right]$$

$$\tau_{i,t} = \frac{STD_{i,t}}{STDCC}$$

4.9 Option Reference Price

On each Option Portfolio Business Day, the “Option Reference Prices” for both Call and Put options are defined as the relevant Option Settlement Price as published by the Exchange in Table 2. If such a price is not available then it will be determined by the Calculation Agent in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

4.10 Option Expiration Value (“OptionExpirationValue_i”)

For each Portfolio Constituent “i” in respect of each Option Portfolio Business Day “t” that is also the expiry day for the relevant option, the Option Expiration Value is calculated as follows:

If the relevant Option Type is 'Call' then: OptionExpirationValue_i = max(0, F_{i,t} – K_i)

If the relevant Option Type is 'Put' then: OptionExpirationValue_i = max(0, K_i – F_{i,t})

Where:

“F_{i,t}” means the Exchange Settlement Price of the Reference Future on Option Portfolio Business Day t of corresponding option i; .

“K_i” means the Option Strike corresponding to option i;
